Hello! I am Dmytro Borysov. Kyiv is my unconditional love as well as gastronomy. For many years I was looking for an idea that would combine all of this - the passion for the city, memories of childhood and the food. That's how we created Chicken Kyiv. It's not a time machine into the 80's, but rather a feeling what it would be like. I hope when you have poached eggs with a glass of sparkling wine for breakfast here, green borsch for lunch or Chicken Kyiv for dinner, or you have the lemonade as from your childhood memories and try Olivier salad with crayfish and caviar while playing the Ukrainian jazz in the air, you'll feel and get it.

Chicken Kyiv is an iconic dish. It is obligatory made of a whole breast with a liquid center, juicy meat and a thin crispy crust. How would I advise you to enjoy it?
 First, to make a small puncture closer to the bone with a special skewer so that a little bit of oil and juice leak out on the truffle mashed potatoes.
 Then keeping the cutlet by the bone I would cut it into pieces. And the last, of course, I would eat it holding by the chicken frills. Bon appetit!
